

2017's best summer holidays for babies and toddlers

By Family Traveller on 27 March 2017

Taking a holiday with kids under five this summer? We've done the hard work for you and found Europe's best summer holidays for babies and toddlers. And relax, they're all short haul and low stress.

Prices quoted are based on a family of four.

1/9 Ikos Olivia, Halkidiki

6–13 Aug, ultra all-Inclusive, £4,830

The deserving winner of the 2016 Family Traveller Award for Best All-Inclusive Resort For Families, Ikos Olivia is every parent's dream come true. From the complimentary 24/7 room service to the watersports and sumptuous spa, at Ikos there is everything that parents could think of to help them unwind.

The best part is that the world-renowned kids' club for ages four to 16 is included as part of the ultra-all-inclusive resort concept.

Where

Halkidiki, Greece (a 45 minute transfer from the airport)

What

Flights from London plus 7 nights stay for 2 adults and 2 children on the ultra all-inclusive package, including kids' club, activities, water sports, all food and beverages plus 24/7 room service and daily restocked minibar

Price

£4,830

Find out more about Ikos Holidays