

prima

Your holidays

Let's go all in!

The best
ALL-INCLUSIVE
holidays

Freedom is what the best all-inclusives promise – freedom from restaurant and bar bills, not to mention currency crashes! Here are this year's top choices...

MEDITERRANEAN BEACHES

The private beach at Ikos Olivia ABOVE Oceania's infinity pool and sea-view terrace

Ikos Resorts, Halkidiki, Greece

Ikos Olivia and Ikos Oceania in Halkidiki epitomise a new brand of slick all-inclusive where all the old negative clichés, such as dreary buffets and tacky entertainment, have been busted with the 'Infinite Lifestyle' promise.

This promise includes Michelin-starred chefs, the Ikos wine cellar with a choice of 300 international and local wines, private beaches, crèche services, kids' clubs and luxurious spas. There are also dine-out experiences, offering guests the chance to eat outside of the resort as part of the package, thereby supporting the local economy.

These resorts have broad appeal – they are ideal for honeymooners, groups of friends or families looking for a luxe take on the all-inclusive holiday. And such is their popularity, more sister properties are scheduled to open across the Mediterranean in the next few years.

YOUR ALL-IN BILL! Classic Collection Holidays offers seven nights at Ikos Oceania from £1,089 per person, based on two adults sharing, return flights from London Gatwick to Thessaloniki and private transfers. All meals, drinks and activities (apart from motorised watersports and tennis lessons) are included. See classic-collection.co.uk.